

Happy Halloween from ASBRT.

We hope you enjoy your 2013 Halloween and we wanted to take this opportunity to remind you that this year's Halloween is the expiration date for all Alabama Licensed Respiratory Therapy Licenses. We thought this holiday might serve as a fun way to remember a not so fun responsibility. Therefore, we provide the below reminder for all licensees.

ASBRT Halloween Reminder

When Halloween draws near,

In even years, there is no fear.

In odd years, some shall face a FRIGHT,

If their renewal is not made by midnight!
